Terms & Conditions – Website Advertising – Retired Malaysian Naval Officers Association (RMNOA)

Advertising on the RMNOA website is subject to the following terms and conditions:

Acceptance by the Advertiser and any associated company(ies) or agency(ies) of these Terms and Conditions and ED SKY SDN. BHD. Privacy Policy is required prior to the Association publishing any material on its website.

All advertising material is subject to approval by The Management, which reserves the right to reject or cancel any advertisement deemed to be incompatible with the objectives of The Management or unsuitable for any other reason.

Advertising space is limited and offered on a first-come first-served basis. When all of the available advertising slots are filled, further advertisements are queued (stored off-line) until a suitable slot becomes available. The Management will notify queued advertisers of the estimated date that their advertisement is likely to be placed on the website as well as the date it will actually go live.

The position and presentation of all advertisements is decided by The Management, in discussion with the Advertiser.

The Management is not liable for delays in publishing or failure to publish submitted advertising material in the event of circumstances beyond the company's control.

The Management will not comply with any advertiser's instructions if they conflict with the company's own established policies.

The Management is not responsible for the content of any advertising material or any errors or inaccuracy in any advertisement. This is the responsibility of the Advertiser. Notwithstanding, The Management will not knowingly publish advertisements that contain errors or false information. The Advertiser will take the necessary action to correct any errors or inaccuracies at the earliest opportunity. If The Management deems that the Advertiser is not taking the necessary action then the advertisement will be withdrawn from the Association's website.

In submitting the advertisement to The Management, the advertiser and any associated company(ies)/agency(ies) acknowledge that they own the rights and permissions to publish submitted material on the The Management website. The advertiser and any associated company(ies)/agency(ies) agrees jointly to indemnify and protect The Management against all damage, loss, expense and liability of any nature arising from the Advertiser's submitted content.

These Terms and Conditions and the rates (fees) are subject to change without prior notice. Only new or renewed contracts are affected when terms and conditions and/or rates change.

Privacy Policy

The Management follows fair information practices with respect to personal information that it collects, uses or discloses in the course of its activities. These practices conform with the requirements of the Personal Information Protection and Electronic Documents Act.

Payment & Cancellation Policy

Advertising space will be confirmed on a first-come, first-served basis upon receipt of full payment and the advertisement in the specified size and format.

The Management reserves the right to refuse or postpone the display of submitted advertising content until payment has been received in full and advertising space becomes available.

Fees paid for advertising are non-refundable unless the advertisement is cancelled no later than 10 days prior to the commencement of the advertising period which is defined as the moment the advertisement is first published on the website.

Cancellations received 10 days prior to the commencement of The Management advertising period are subject to a RM50 administration fee.
